

THE CARTER CENTER OF L

Latin American and Caribbean

Dr. Manzanares Subri
President Raul Al

Foi

Sr. Rodrigo Madrigal Monte nchez, Council member and representative of Oscar President of Costa Rica

... Aquiles Daly Arribalzaga, Vice Council member, Information Pres

... Fernando Belaúnde

Dr. Robert W. Carter

of Jimmy Carter

... Sr. Genaro Arr
Christian Democratic Part

eral Secretariat of Chile

In addition, the delegation: Mr. David Kjersten Walker from the Center's Latin American or

Ca
Bo]

Mr. Ayriagada has members of the delegation na agreed to bends. We conducted visits of Mexico in sovereignty, with anti-government officials. Productive co-operation, awareness of which Mexico rights all the people defend each other.

ico, who interfered s friend at lai

followed statement respecting in Mexico's political of democracy in the section universal igation to

Our principal witness the observation by first like to thank the assistance they took a also knew of the

is not
int. Mexi in terab e ind ents elections but x groups. We were tion and for they knew we would And frankly, we le groups have ha ll

Ob

Many of election obs processes. Ichn co unique watching in common with it unique tea la

p ma ear.
is the ichn has

In the es arent political the opposition tends re-exam interpreted that as part of unintentionally encourages Opposition parties do not accept the results.

any commu
ate any sl conspira and police

obs bers of pa will each oth or irregularity governing party pressive tactics.
cess and rarely

With little common ground, national election observers are often perceived as partial to the opposition. This has been the concern in Mexico. There are cases of the observer groups a t, criticisaf the government neirre capable of performing t

Yesterday
asked... developed. Based on these i encouraging aspect of our ob indication, courage, ba coordinators and the fact throughout the two state well-trained in the state relate to election officia rather extensive forces a the key units of good el and an environment mainly cases, but also enter the casilla...

Our assessment is local observer gro from views with leaders in groups a and eva ognizing However, recg t e would use directions, whi ehe used with the stateen not perm conditions did i evidence believe that the our view, conclusion. In inclusion merit such a co oth Mich as 30-37% in b padron analysis of the casan." (In case of Michoacan t given us they have not yet regularities created of irr difficult "the very unwilling to implement study, and the padron, but it is incc irregularities to create simply, without proofs, th as. Moreover, correcting the list

The other issues raised in th by the governing party; the two parties, inequitable access to Chihuahua, and the hoacan that they wor

1 law system at
+ on de ai n.
Le:

oper way ed in the doc onmentati s worked to observa. In the scuss atio

ob
ob
ect do n a di

had n a

the observe stake, rea been very high given and demographic the PAN in Michoacan between the census elected the moderator one than. We can tal not have a political process

ment - the use of state funds estimated spending between th on a patrality or electio d. In our resolution would s in other our experience e the election came immediately thes morning by tradicts th the essential conditions for According to the logic of the stands in the way vote count is fair an election did not exist. statement, the only issue that Michoacan is whether the in the Observers never did play other important roles. During the election campaign in Michoacan, the was behind another, that located the la Democracia in Michoacan....The right count by the Consejo para monitoring, and Chihuahua was excluded from the assembly, electo accept the results of the resources quickly. Unfortunately, the onset of violence, which has been and fair access to a quick count in the Actas, they could establish the accuracy of the vote count

IV. Summary and Conclusion

Were the elections in Michoacan and that is the question you would like to stay for the questions. We did not judge the elections. We have observed long before the which have done quickly all and welcomed by every stage of the this trip. Much know.

view, In our view since positive way 988, and election climate on day. But s continue opinion polls to show the system. But in the same intelligence & social fo ds of Mexican thousands - determ in the electoral system to ensure that no voter

The local observer groups are new dedicated and could play a vital role they are given a backward, sup process that is essential to the elimination of the political parties, indep... and the political hope the system accountable. We at the legal and political environment will be created to pt election observers to play would this role, and if invited, we will be prepared to help the observer groups fill the gaps

Chihuahua free and fair? us to answer, you do not not come here to observe o the elections effectively. tions, to have fielded s, to have been invi ave complete access lections and nor ector system has opened we juraged by the pacif position, parading and public confidence in the fairness the most positive element freedom of information if the political process ral access to the electo thing that to demonstrate succeed as civil society increase their capacity to make hope the legal and political

environment will be created to pt election observers to play
would this role, and if invited, we will be prepared to help the
observer groups fill the gaps