

THE CARTER-MENIL
HUMAN RIGHTS PRIZE

Commemorating the 43rd anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

*The Rothko Chapel
Houston, Texas
December 8, 1991*

1991
Carter-Menil

The Carter-Menil Human Rights Foundation

Posthumously awarded to:

Prize Recipients

Board of Directors

Father Ignacio Ellacuría, S.J.
Father Ignacio Martín Baró, S.J.
Father Moz
Father

SI

Father Ignacio Ellacuría, S.J.

Father Segundo Montes Mozo, S.J.

Born in 1920 in the Basque region of Spain in Valladolid in 1933 Segundo Montes was born

Though he studied abroad for his initial studies in the of Jesus in 1947. Father Ellacuría first went to El Salvador in 1948 and after studying abroad for the next two decades, he returned to the country in 1967 to begin teaching at the

Dominique de Menil

The Carter-Menil

H

"The murder of the Jesuits is both the last decade of brutal symbol has take people ves of s lvador. It represe 000 Sa vadorans, an important violence that for the n the li of El Sa ome 70, nts

and the impunity of the Salvadoran military."

—Dominique de Menil

Conrad Schlumberger whose geo-electric discoveries led him

uman Rights Foundation

The Carter-Menil Human Rights Foundation was established in 1986 by Jimmy Carter and

The Consejo de Comunidades Etnicas Runujel

Council of Ethnic Communities Runujel

Carter Center
Human Rights
Program in J 8 or and um ts and fun al s. The obj of the C the dis s ve ni system f st

Launched in January 1988, the Human Rights program of The the obligation to provide unpaid service in this system; redress for victims of abuse; and advocating for increased respect for indigenous culture and identity.

The Consejo de Comunidades Etnicas Runujel

countries that must come to terms with a repressive past and the

The Carter Center Atlanta, Georgia possible future initiatives.

Interventions:

The Carter Center in Atlanta, Georgia is a nonprofit organization in Atlanta, Georgia. The Center is home to a variety of outreach programs in an effort to improve quality of life around the world.