
Women's Resilience in Environmental Stewardship and Empowerment (SheRise) – Women Advocates Programmatic Grants, under the Women's Rights Initiative of The Carter Center's Human Rights Program.

: $60,000

Up to 2

November 18, 2024

Given that women and girls are intricately linked to the climate crisis, The Carter Center's Human Rights Program, after completing a detailed scoping assessment is implementing the Women's Resilience in E

The RFA is open to organizations

A budget detailing line item and activity costs, including staff allocation, for the suggested time period. _____

- d) Brief budget notes explaining calculation costs in the budget.
A Gantt

The following supporting materials are not required but may be submitted:

- CVs or descriptions of key project team members (no more than two pages)
- Brief summary of previous awards within the past five years (no more than two pages).

Applicants must demonstrate organizational experience and ability to plan and manage programming, progress reports, and financial compliance.

FINANCIAL PROPOSAL

Financial proposals will be evaluated following the completion of the technical proposal evaluation. Applicants are encouraged to develop a realistic budget that includes only a small portion of costs for overhead expenses. Budgets must be consistent with proposed activities. The applicant must have the ability to account for all costs and demonstrate an ability to reconcile expenses and maintain acceptable standards of compliance properly. The amount of funding per successful applicant depends on the number of awards.

9. Award

The award will be made to the most qualified applicant(s) who can successfully demonstrate their capacity to implement the activities outlined in their proposal with the greatest efficiency and best cost. The Carter Center reserves the right to negotiate with the selected applicant(s) to adjust their proposal to meet The Carter Center's program objectives. The award will only go into effect once all components of an applicant's proposal are agreed upon and an agreement between the applicant and The Carter Center is signed.

The selected applicants are expected to commence implementing successful projects as of the date and time stipulated in this RFA.

The Carter Center
"Waging Peace. Fighting Disease. Building Hope."

A not-for-profit, nongovernmental organization, The Carter Center has helped to improve life for people in over 80 countries by resolving conflicts; advancing democracy, human rights, and economic opportunity; preventing diseases; and improving mental health care. The Carter Center was founded in 1982 by former U.S. President Jimmy Carter and former First Lady Rosalynn Carter, in partnership with Emory University, to advance peace and health worldwide.

Visit our website CarterCenter.org | Follow us on Twitter @CarterCenter | Like us on Facebook